"Every cloud engenders not a storm."

- William Shakespeare

Foreword

Throughout this annual we relive our experiences and recall the pride and enthusiasm for our school, Cimarron High. Because of these experiences, each graduate and student has grown to realize the meaning of education and the responsibilities of life.

The paths which lead from Memory Lane are unknown paths. Although each student may choose a different path, each will look upon their "Stroll Through Memory Lane" with fond memories. It is our hope that all the paths extending from Cimarron High School will lead each individual to success.

Through this annual, we, the annual staff, hope to recreate the school spirit and school pride which has been displayed throughout this memorable year of 1964.

A picture taken while she was teaching here.

Mr. and Mrs. Davis

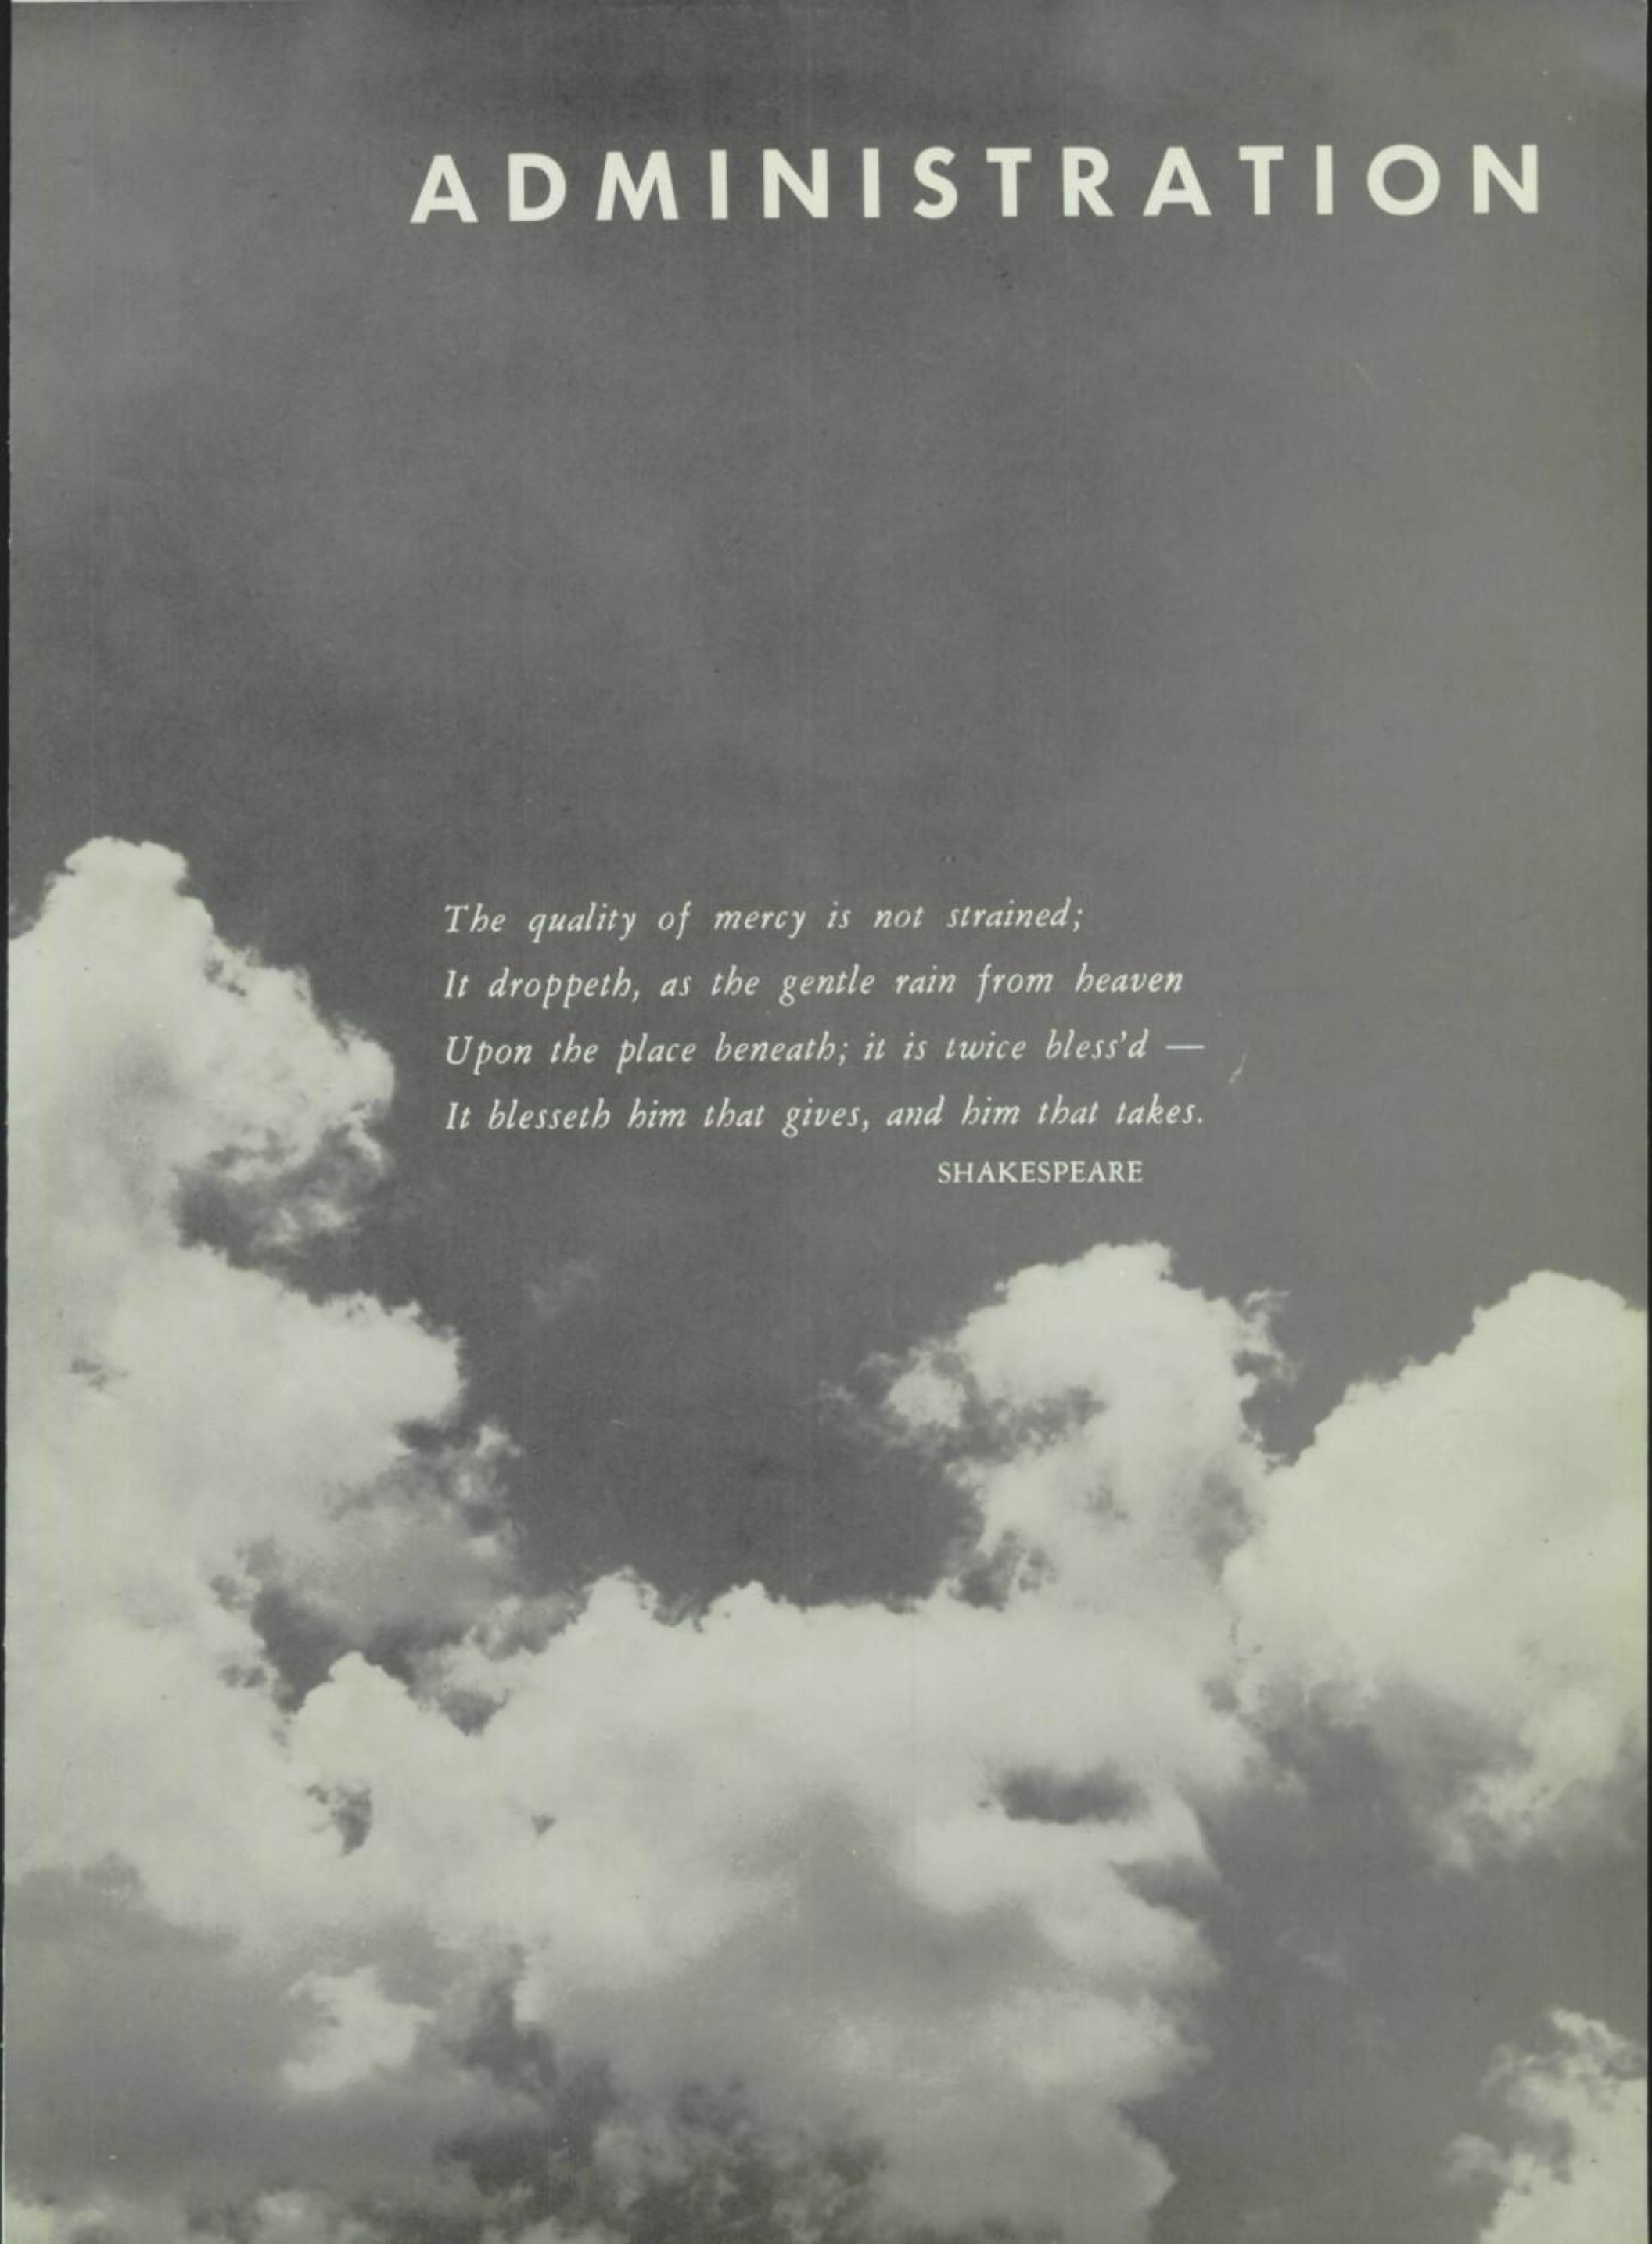
Dedication

We, of the annual staff, wish to dedicate this annual to Mrs. Ethel Davis, who will truly see and appreciate the growth of the Blue Jay Annual throughout the many years.

Mrs. Ethel Davis is the oldest living graduate of Cimarron High. Graduating from the ninth grade in 1901, she attended Baker University, later becoming a teacher. Showing her loyalty to Cimarron High, Mrs. Davis raised four children who also graduated from Cimarron High School.

Because of the dedication of former alumni to our high school, we dedicate the 1964 Blue Jay to the oldest living alumni member, Mrs. Ethel Davis.

ADMINISTRATION



The quality of mercy is not strained;
It droppeth, as the gentle rain from heaven
Upon the place beneath; it is twice bless'd —
It blesseth him that gives, and him that takes.

To be, or not to be: that is the question:
Whether 'tis nobler in the mind to suffer
The slings and arrows of outrageous fortune,
Or to take arms against a sea of troubles,
And by opposing end them.

No, Doctor, that's not a cavity, it's my bubble-gum!

Our group had 21% more cavities!

There's a hat in this picture, find it!

Help! I got a light bulb stuck in my mouth.

How beautiful is youth! how bright it gleams
With its illusions, aspirations, dreams!
Book of Beginnings, Story
without End,
Each maid a heroine, and
each man a friend!

LONGFELLOW

You mean you're actually going to print this picture in the annual? That's a laugh!

He is a four dab man!

If I don't get what I want, I take it.

The invisible man!

Chuck trained early

Bob, that was fine for your first solo.

Three guesses and the first two don't count.

Like he says, "government is cut and dry."

If you don't do my government I'll Kiss you

WHOA!!!

YES THEY ARE!!!

ADVERTISERS

This above all — to thine own self be true,
And it must follow, as the night the day,
Thou canst not then be false to any man.
